SYNTHETIC TEST FORM — no real respondent data

Synthetic MARP final activity report

FICTIONAL TEST DATA ONLY | Case 0019 | long_answers

Recipient Information

Name of your organization:
Fictional Community Group 0019

First name
Alex

Last name
Example

Title
Event coordinator

Telephone number
202-555-0100

Alternate telephone number (optional)
N/A

E-mail address
fixture0019@example.invalid

Event Information

Name of Event:
Synthetic Culture Day 0019

Event start date: YYYY-MM-DD:
2026-06-12

Event end date: YYYY-MM-DD:
2026-06-13

Event location(s) (city, province):
Ottawa, Ontario

Project/Event Web Page and Social media pages (Facebook, Twitter etc.) (if applicable):
https://example.invalid/event

Events Activities

List and describe your completed event's activities including dates, location, number of participants. Explain how your event activities helped achieved your event expected results.
Activity 1: Synthetic participants discussed inclusion, shared stories, and practised listening. Session 1 had 11 participants. Activity 2: Synthetic participants discussed inclusion, shared stories, and practised listening. Session 2 had 12 participants. Activity 3: Synthetic participants discussed inclusion, shared stories, and practised listening. Session 3 had 13 participants. Activity 4: Synthetic participants discussed inclusion, shared stories, and practised listening. Session 4 had 14 participants. Activity 5: Synthetic participants discussed inclusion, shared stories, and practised listening. Session 5 had 15 participants. Activity 6: Synthetic participants discussed inclusion, shared stories, and practised listening. Session 6 had 16 participants. Activity 7: Synthetic participants discussed inclusion, shared stories, and practised listening. Session 7 had 17 participants. Activity 8: Synthetic participants discussed inclusion, shared stories, and practised listening. Session 8 had 18 participants. Activity 9: Synthetic participants discussed inclusion, shared stories, and practised listening. Session 9 had 19 participants. Activity 10: Synthetic participants discussed inclusion, shared stories, and practised listening. Session 10 had 20 participants. Activity 11: Synthetic participants discussed inclusion, shared stories, and practised listening. Session 11 had 21 participants. Activity 12: Synthetic participants discussed inclusion, shared stories, and practised listening. Session 12 had 22 participants. Activity 13: Synthetic participants discussed inclusion, shared stories, and practised listening. Session 13 had 23 participants. Activity 14: Synthetic participants discussed inclusion, shared stories, and practised listening. Session 14 had 24 participants. Activity 15: Synthetic participants discussed inclusion, shared stories, and practised listening. Session 15 had 25 participants. Activity 16: Synthetic participants discussed inclusion, shared stories, and practised listening. Session 16 had 26 participants. Activity 17: Synthetic participants discussed inclusion, shared stories, and practised listening. Session 17 had 27 participants. Activity 18: Synthetic participants discussed inclusion, shared stories, and practised listening. Session 18 had 28 participants.

Has your event changed from what was originally planned (refer to your funding application)?
[X] Yes [ ] No

If yes, please explain the main changes that took place and the reasons for the changes.
The workshop moved indoors because of rain.

SYNTHETIC TEST FORM — no real respondent data

Event Results

1.1 Please tell us how your event helped people gain knowledge or awareness, develop strategies and/or take action to achieve one or more of the results and address one or more of the priority themes mentioned above, if applicable. More specifically, what changed in terms of your participants' knowledge, attitudes and/or behaviors after you delivered your activities?
Participants learned about cultural traditions and discussed inclusive community activities.

Did your event involve multiple cultural, religious or ethnocultural communities and establish concrete opportunities for positive interaction among them? If the answer is NO, please go to question 2.2 below.
[X] Yes [ ] No

If yes, please name the communities that participated in your event activities and explain how they were involved.
Fictional River Group: hosted music Fictional Hill Group: hosted discussions

If your event involved one single cultural, religious or ethnocultural community, please specify which community and explain how the participants were involved.
N/A

Total number of participants for the event:
100

3.1.1 How many years/times have you delivered your event?
3 occurrences

3.1.2 What impacts have you noticed on the community(ies) involved over time? For example, have you noticed any changes in terms of attitudes and awareness in your community?
Participants reported more confidence meeting new neighbours.

4.1 What helped make your event a success?
Volunteers, accessible venues, and advance communication.

4.2 If applicable, describe any major challenges or obstacles and how you would have done something differently?
Transport was limited. Next time we would arrange a shuttle.

Partnerships

Please list your key partners, if any, and any relevant support provided to the event.
Fictional Library: venue

Fictional Arts Club: volunteers Fictional Cafe: refreshments

Publicity and Promotion

Please explain how you promoted your event (For example, by using Facebook, Instagram, Twitter, YouTube, TikTok etc.):
Posters, email invitations, and community social media.

Acknowledgement of Government of Canada's Support and Official Languages Requirements

Did you publicly acknowledge Government of Canada's support as per the guide on the public acknowledgement of financial support ?
[X] Yes [ ] No

If yes, please explain how and when you acknowledged the Government of Canada's support and provide specific examples:
Support was acknowledged on posters and at the closing event.

If not, please explain why:
N/A

English and French are the two official languages of Canada and the Government of Canada is committed to promoting both languages. If your target audience or the communities involved in your event included both English-speaking and French-speaking people, please indicate what measures you undertook to communicate with both groups and to encourage each to participate in your project.
Invitations and announcements were provided in English and French.

Name and signature

Authorized Signature*
Alex Example (synthetic typed signature)

Name (please print)
Alex Example

Date (YYYY-MM-DD)
2026-06-20